“Imagine Peace” March 1st, 2008

There are 39 peace vigils held throughout our Network every month - citizens standing on their community street corners with signs in hand - reading “Imagine Peace”. We believe this constant presence has made a significant impact on changing the hearts and minds of our neighbors here in Wisconsin, calling for an end to the Iraq War.

If you would like a ($10) copy of the 2008 VIGIL Calendar, call 608-250-9240.

About our Musicians:

Peter Leidy - In addition to his day job, Peter is a singer, songwriter, and award-winning commentator on life in Wisconsin. His humorous observations involve politics, Wisconsin culture, the Madison scene, and personalized songs for individuals. Baba Ghanooj - This trio from People for Peace in Waupaca sings at the WNPJ Pancakes for Peace event each June. They have CD's available, too! The Raging Grannies of Madison make use of creative irony, added to familiar tunes, to point out the problems with war. Judith Williams of Waukesha is well-known to WNPJ, singing to us as we Walk for Peace and opening our statewide Assemblies.

Thanks to Dennis Coyier for the sound system support!
.....and a special thanks to Mary Beth Schlagheck, WNPJ Board member and organizer of tonight's event.

Closing song - led by Jo Vukelich.....

LET THERE BE PEACE NOW
