

Join UNA-USA Dane County as we celebrate United Nations Day and the International Year of Water Cooperation

Thursday, October 24, 2013, 5:30 – 7:30

Location: University Club, 803 State Street (Library Mall)

Visit www.unadane.com to Register Online (by October 18th)

Event Schedule

5:30 – 6:00 – Welcome & Cocktails (music by Joe Elder)

6:00 – 6:30 Music by Clocks in Motion

6:30 – 7:00 Award presentation and speakers

7:00 – 7:30 Music by Daithi Wolfe

- Family friendly event for all ages with a supervised children's play area
 - Honor Dr. Vince Kavaloski, 2013 Global Citizen of the Year
- Dr. Thomas Neeson and Dr. Sebastian Martinuzzi, UW Department of Limnology will present about the United Nations 2013 International Year of Water Cooperation
- Meet UW students participating in the Model UN Program, Millennium Development Goals Awareness Project and Gen UN
 - Live music – Daithi Wolfe, Clocks in Motion, Joseph Elder
 - Eclectic Selection of Ethnic Appetizers and Cash bar

Registration: $20 Adults * $10 Students * Children 12 and under are free

Visit www.unadane.com to Register Online (by October 18th)

Funding and support provided by the Latin American, Caribbean and Iberian Studies Program at UW-Madison, UW International Student Services -- Millennium Development Goals Awareness Project, Edgewood College Center for Global Education, SERRV International, and Artifax Graphics.
