Help Fund the Work of the Dane County Chapter

Contribute items for our Silent Auction

Contact Louise Lund at weez1@sbcglobal.net, 608-244-9698; or Judy Rose at judy.rose@wpr.org; 608-257-3233.

Sponsor a Table

If your company would like to be a table sponsor, contact John Quinlan at quinlan2@wisc.edu or 608-213-8409.

Funds raised by the silent auction and table sponsors will allow our Chapter to:

- educate members and friends through our monthly programs, our web site (www.una-usadanecounty.org) and Newsletter, and an information table at the Farmer's Market;
- organize an annual campaign for Adopt a Minefield or other humanitarian programs of the UNA;
- reach out to high schools and colleges through speakers, the Model UN program, the HERO program and the national High School Essay Contest;
- engage in advocacy for the important work of the UN System to support the international rule of law;
- invite the community to join us in celebrating and supporting the human rights, peacekeeping, environmental sustainability, and development efforts of the UN.

“Human Rights-- 60 Years After the Declaration”

3:25 - Announcement of Silent Auction “Winners”

3:30 - Closing

UN Secretary General Ban Ki-Moon said:

It is our duty to insure that these rights are a living reality— that they are known, understood and enjoyed by everyone, everywhere.

It is often those who most need their human rights protected who also need to be informed that the Declaration exists— that it exists for them.

The sixtieth anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration is an occasion for all of us to recommit to the vision of the Declaration...

“Human Rights-- 60 Years After the Declaration”

Micheline Ishay, Ph.D

Human Rights Program Director
Graduate School of International Studies (GSIS)
University of Denver

Micheline Ishay was born in Tel Aviv and raised in Luxemburg and Brussels. She received her BA from the University of Tel Aviv and her Ph.D. from Rutgers University. She is currently professor and director of the International Human Rights Program at the Graduate School of International Studies at the University of Denver -- the largest interdisciplinary human rights program in the United States. She is the author or editor of a half dozen books, including Internationalism and Its Betrayal, The History of Human Rights and The Human Rights Reader. She is currently working on two new book projects -- The Future of Human Rights and Israelis and Palestinians: Beyond a Two-State Solution. She travels widely in Europe, the United States and the Middle East, speaking on a variety of topics.
